

A DAY WITH JOHN BELL

Come for insight and renewal as John leads two sessions over the day - one reflecting on God's delight in diversity, and a second vocal session where John will lead us into the songs of the church.

“WHAT WE SING IS WHAT WE END UP BELIEVING.”

Rev John Bell

REV DR JOHN BELL

John is a Scottish hymn-writer and Church of Scotland minister. He is a member of the Iona Community, and a frequent broadcaster, where he often presents programmes on the BBC, majoring on contemporary religious songs from various parts of the world.

MORNING SESSION

11.00am - 12.30pm

THE DIVINE BIAS IN FAVOUR OF DIVERSITY

From Genesis one to the Tower of Babel and beyond there runs a golden thread which celebrates that God delights in diversity...

AFTERNOON SESSION

2.00PM - 3.30PM

BELIEF SHAPED NOT BY SERMONS

What we sing - though preachers might deny it - has as much significance in shaping our beliefs as sermons.
